

Freedom

Freedom is a word we all know but can take for granted.

What is freedom?

Freedom

- Freedom resides within the mind and heart.
- Freedom is a precious gift.
- There can be full freedom when rights are balanced with responsibilities.
- There is full Freedom when everyone has equal rights.
- All people have a right to be free. For all to be free, each one has to respect the rights of others.
- Inner freedom is experienced when I have positive thoughts for all, including myself.

FREEDOM

is not worth having if it does not include the freedom to make

If children have a right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion, then they also have the obligation to respect other's thoughts or religious principles.

- Human rights help to ensure every human being has the freedom to grow to their potential.
- When everyone's human rights are protected and balanced, it helps everyone to get along.
- At school we respect every child's human rights and believe in helping every child to achieve their potential.
- It's important to always try your best at school and to respect each other so you can help to create a positive learning environment where everyone has an equal chance to reach their potential!

A grayscale silhouette of a person standing on a beach, facing away from the camera with their arms outstretched towards the horizon. The person appears to be wearing a one-piece swimsuit. The background shows a calm sea and a bright, hazy sky.

There's no greater freedom than the freedom to be yourself.
Give yourself that gift, and choose to surround yourself with those who appreciate you exactly as you truly are. —

Here in our school
Let us live responsibly at all times.
Let our rooms be full of happiness
and respect for each other.
Let love be in our hearts
With kindness and compassion for all.
Let us remember
In learning together,
We grow together
And succeed together.
